Southwest High School

presents . . .

Foreword

This, THE ILIAD, is a record of our high school years. It is a record of the years when care rests lightly on our shoulders, and we are just beginning to make important decisions, with the guidance of teachers and parents. Soon we will be assuming complete responsibility for ourselves.

In the years to come, when we have completed our education, and have ventured out into the world on our own, we shall look within this book, and as we turn the pages, relive the years when life was lived in one small sphere. We hope that this will become a lasting record, a memory of all the friends and acquaintances we've made here; of all the happy hours, and carefree acts; of the sad or serious moments too. May each page bring to mind a new, more wonderful experience of days we have cherished at Southwest High School.

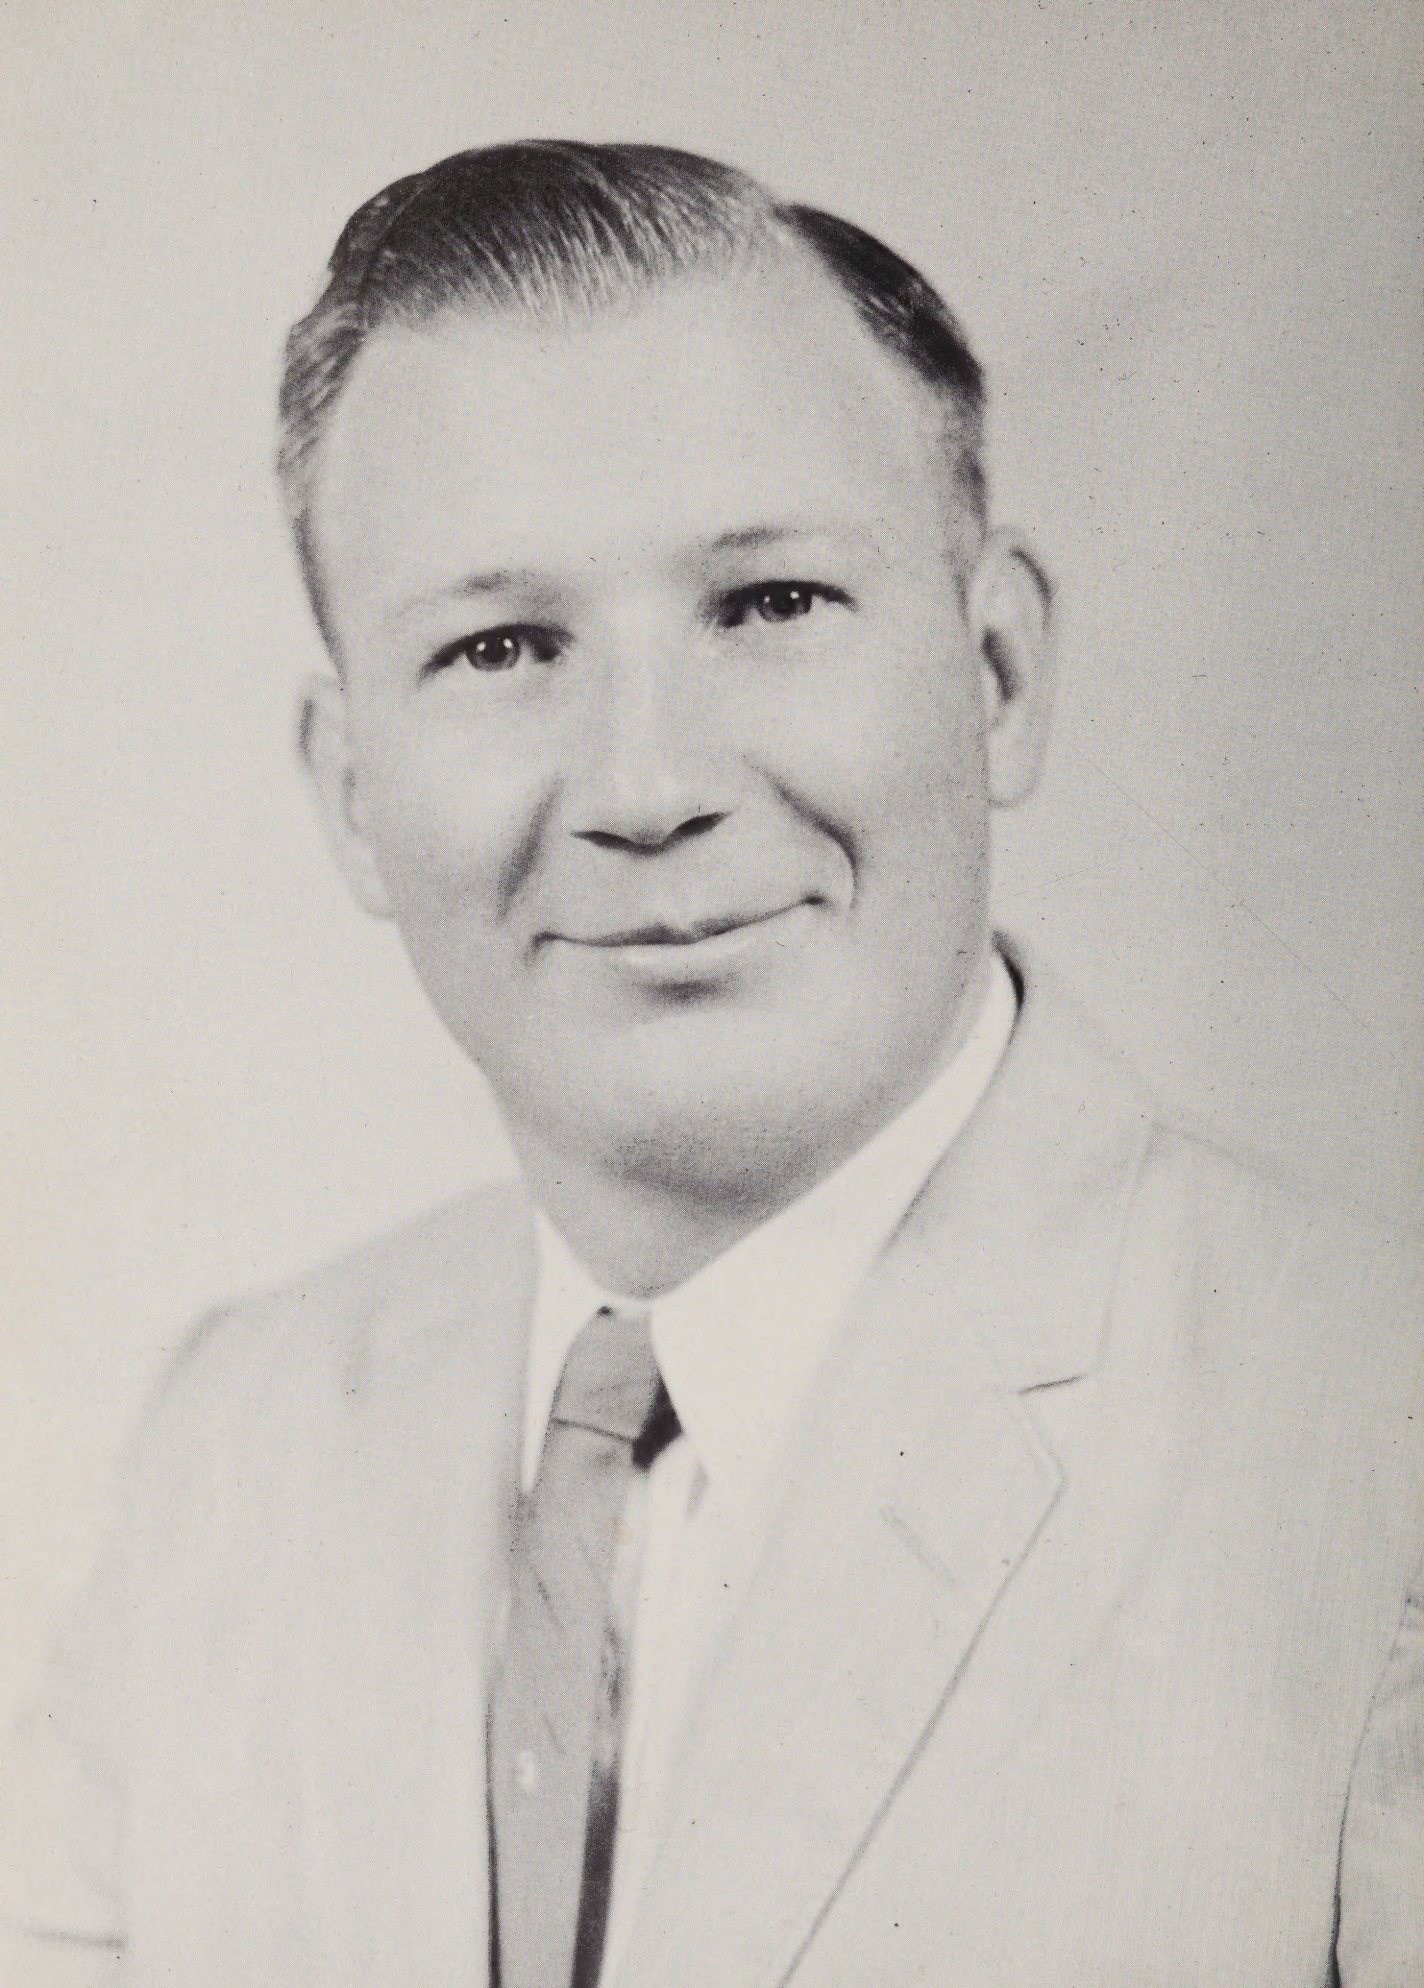
The ILIAD

OF 1960

SOUTHWEST HIGH SCHOOL
Forsyth County
Clemmons, North Carolina



Dedication

Devotion to profession beyond its actual demands, a sincere interest in students that extends beyond the school day, a friendly greeting and pleasant smile, an eagerness to lend a helping hand, a thorough knowledge of subject matter, and an interesting manner of presenting it, these qualities belong to teachers who command both the respect and love of their students.

One teacher whom the senior class believes to possess these qualities in the highest degree is one we consider an A+ teacher and an A+ person.

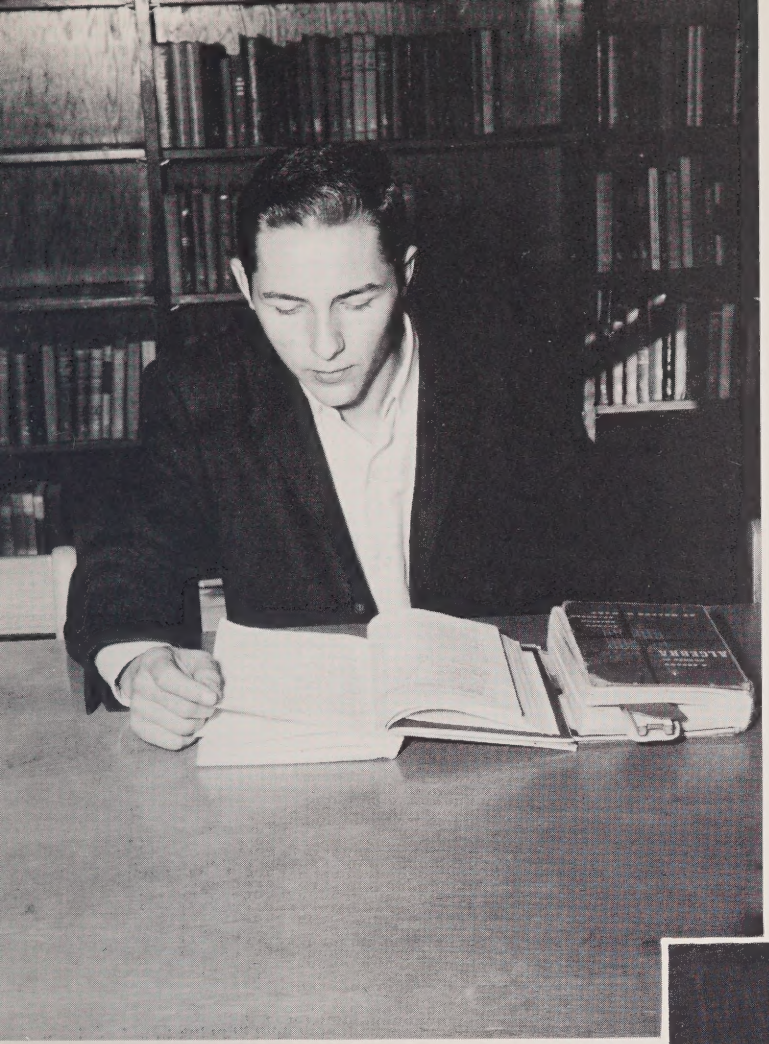
With deep appreciation and affection we, the Class of 1960, dedicate this edition of THE ILIAD to that person, MR. GILMER BINKLEY.

What is Southwest?

It is . . .

the Students

. . . the Faculty



. . . the Search

for Knowledge

. . . the Desire for Gaiety

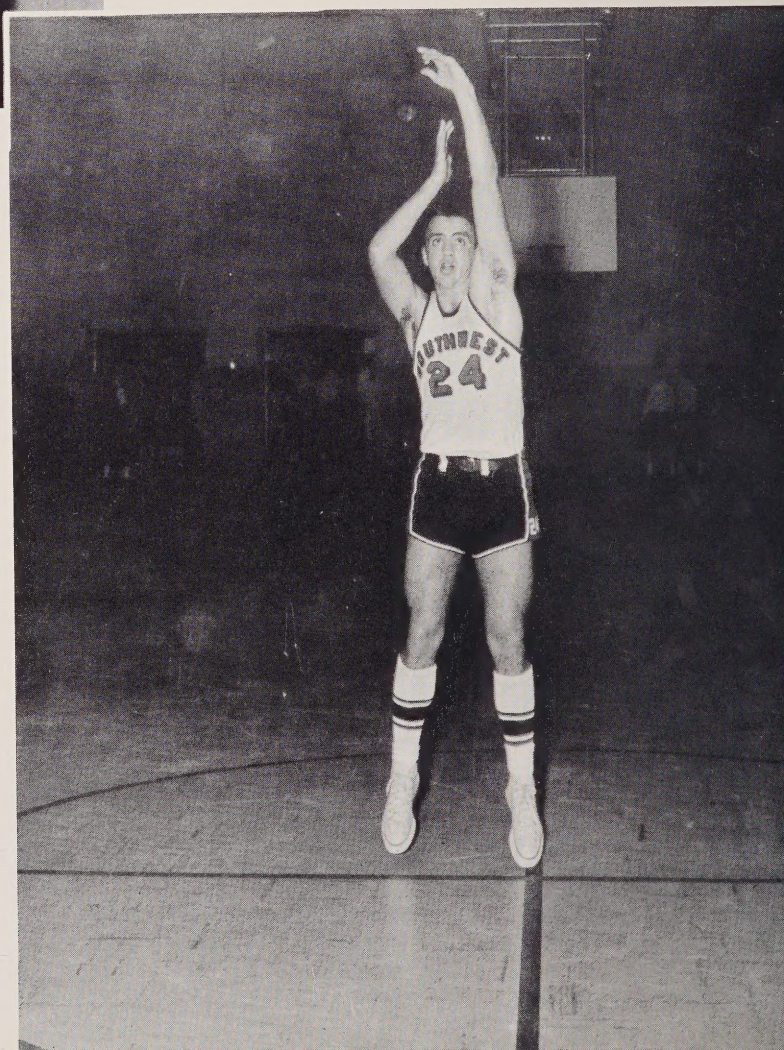
It is . . .

the Will to Serve



. . . the Determination

to Win

. . . the Crowds

. . . the lonely

It is . . .

the Happy

. . . the Sad

. . . the Need for Recognition and . . .

a State of Mind

To Our Parents . . .

For your love and understanding,

For the sacrifice you've made,

For your patience and guidance,

For your part in molding our character,

For your attention to our needs and wants,

For your unfailing Christian faith,

For all these things and for many more,

We, the Senior Class, would like to say humbly and sincerely

THANK YOU.

Class Prophecy

As we look through the product of a prospering 1976 enterprise, the "Southwest Clarion," edited by ODELL and VIVIAN SHIELDS, we see that BILLY HUFF, the famous playwright, is planning a tragedy as his next play. He is calling it "The Diary of PATT HORTON," starring the enchanting BRENDA HILL.

Afterwards the glamorous ROCHELLE YOUNG is planning another one of her extravagant parties. Some of the expected guests include LINDA McBRIDE, SHERILL STEWART, GAIL ROMINGER, JOE ROTHROCK and RUTH TAYLOR, Rochelle assures Ruth there will be plenty to eat and drink.

It is rumored that playboy JON REYNOLDS and tempermental opera singer, MARY CHARLES CROUCH, are flying in on the same plane from Florida for the party. Could this mean anything?

Reading on we find that several grand openings have been planned for the week. At the opening of the G. & H. Sports Arena owned by NORVELL GROSS and EUGENIA HOWARD, KAY VAN DOEREN, lady wrestler, with her trainers, MONTY MATTHEWS, and ROBERT BYERS, heavyweight boxing champion, will be featured along with the internationally known Globe Trotters. The Trotters' star player is "Double Dribble" DON HAUSER. Of course, their water boy and mascot AUSTIN "Booger" McGUIRE will be along. At the opening, the winner of the Mr. Southwest Contest will be announced also. The three finalists are JACKIE BOYER, NORMAN CRAVER, and RONALD SPAINHOUR.

GERALD DINKINS, designer of the Dinky Dinkins sports car, will be opening his business the same day DAN BREWER and PERRY HARPER open their Unbreakable Ping-Pong Company.

DODD LINKER will start his horseback riding instructions next week. He will be assisted by JEAN DAVIS and KATIE HICE. Miss Hice is the star of the television series, "Granny Oakley."

VIRGINIA BOLEN plans a really big opening for her book store. She is going to have several outstanding writers on hand. DERRIS FOSTER and ROGER GOUGH, who write Peanuts will be there along with three authors, KENNETH FORD, STEVE TILLEY, and GARY BARNEY. The book by Mr. Ford and Mr. Tilley is entitled "How to Pass Precollege Math Under Mrs. Bonnie Green" and Mr. Barney's book, which is a little on the light side, is entitled "How to Successfully Skip a Half Day at School."

At the opening of TOMMY HARRELL's speedway, BECKY JARVIS and MANCHEL BARNEY will be battling for first and second place in the Southwest 500.

GUANDELLA ISGETT is favored to place first in handsome GEORGE FEARRINGTON's Rodeo.

RUBY YATES will be opening the Yates Low Rates Taxi Company. It is to be located next to MIKE KITE's and ROBERT SLATER's Construction Company.

Two much-needed additions are being made at Southwestville. Dr. WILLIAM SIDES has agreed to practice Dentistry here. TOMMY HERMAN, veternarian, has also agreed to start his practice here. Dr. Herman cares for such well-known animals as BOBBIE JEAN LARGEN's pet poodle and TONA JENNINGS' pet goat.

BETSY REED, WAYNE MOSER, and GAIL MEADOWS, Morticians, are planning an opening also. We feel that this is one business that will not fail.

We read in the want-ad section that SAM SAPSAY and CAROLYN WELLMAN are trying to sell all their turkeys. It seems a turkey farm wasn't such a good idea after all.

JANET MILLER, PAT LANDRETH, and DAVID LAWSON want to sell their poolroom. JOE LEGG, JERRY JONES, JARVIS HUTCHINS, and CHARLES HIGGINS are protesting, since this will be taking their favorite pastime away.

Reading the smaller print we find that ROBERT TUTTLE wants to get rid of his job which is working with garbage disposal system. BOBBY TESH will probably be interested since he is once again out of work.

Turning the page, we see that JANICE CONRAD is planning to retire from her post as head of Alcoholic Anonymous. Her successor will be either WANDA PETTY, MARY KATHERINE McMILLIAN, or RICHARD VITEK.

Lady scientist ANN ALSOBROOK has just returned from the moon in TERRY HELLARD's rocket ship.

The distinquished senator, JOBY POTEAT, is trying to get a law passed forcing Miss Farthing to retire from the teaching profession. Professor JAMES COHN is against this, however; since it was through his four years of hard study in her classes that he was able to obtain his English degree.

The Chief of Police TIMMY NORMAN is holding hot rodder ROY MENDENHALL for questioning until he can round up the notorious SHEILA BOOSE bootlegging gang.

BOBBY HIGGINS, owner of the largest service station in Southwestville, is asking driving instructor PAT DANIELS to please stop two of her pupils, DONALD CRATER and ROY DALTON, for cutting corners around his station. They have just recently put one of his mechanics, CURTIS MILLER, in the hospital.

ETHEL MILLER FOGLEMAN is once again threatening to leave WAVELL if he doesn't spend less time with the test tube and more time with her. We suggest she seek advice from the well-known marriage counselor, RUTH CHURCH. Some of the few most recent customers are COLENE BOLES, CAROL JAMES, BRENDA THOMPSON, and JUDY LEWIS.

JANE FRYE, eminent lawyer, is pleading a case for JUDY MOCK. Several people are sueing Judy because her newly formulated red hair dye not only turned their hair but their scalps as well.

ELAINE HAUSER is taking a pleasure cruise to Europe on Captain DANNY HAUSER's ocean liner. She has just completed painting a portrait of GLENDA KIMMER, which was quite a job. Also on the pleasure cruise is Dr. MARY LOU PERRYMAN who has just finished doing plastic surgery on GARY PEACOCK. It seems he wasn't satisfied with his looks.

WILMA ADAMS, fashion editor of debonaire KENNETH HESTER's beauty magazine, is writing a feature article on JANE ANDREW who has just been named president of the Cake-on Make-on Company. An article is also going to be done on LYDIA BINKLEY, well-known hair dresser. Three out of four Southwest stars prefer her. The three are GLENDA VOGLER, HAZEL DRAUGHN, and MARY ANN SLOAN. The fourth is stubborn RACHEL MABE who prefers another leading hair dresser, GORDON HUFFMAN.

DOROTHY BOVENDER and BOBBY ADAMS, co-owners of the South-Lite Night Club, have just billed the popular singer LOUISE STEWART. She will be singing her latest hit record, "Send Me the Pillow That You Dream On." Featured in the chorus line, are LINDA LOWDER and NANCY KNOTT. Arrangements are also being made to secure the GENE EDWARDS orchestra. However, Mr. Edwards seems to be having trouble getting his celloist, RACHEL SPEAS, to play the right notes and may not be able to come. MARY "Reynolds" LOWDER, well-known columnist will be there with her assistant and admirer, DAVID SMITH.

BRENDA BEROTH, ANN KING, and MARIE HARPER are secretaries to JERRY CORNATZER who owns the Southwestville Shopping Center. If Ann, Brenda and Marie prove too much for Mr. Cornatzer, LEON PHILLIPS, head of the newly built insane asylum, thinks he might be able to help.

There have been several changes made at Southwest High School since THOMAS DAVIS is principal. First of all he wants to get LARRY BOLES and HAROLD COX graduated.

ROBY CLEARY and GREGORY COLBERT have taken Mr. Pratt's and Mr. Crott's places in the agriculture building. ELIZABETH PETERS has taken over the pots and pans in Mrs. Green's home economics lab. CASPER JONES and BRENDA SPAUGH are still battling over who's going to take over Miss Lennon's place. Oh, yes, Scotty and friends have been replaced by a pudgy little lady with a pudgy little walk, her name: JUDY TURNER, of course.

As we turn the last page of the newspaper we realize that every member of the Senior Class of 1960 is climbing the ladder of success.

Last Will and Testament

We, the 1960 Senior Class of Southwest High School, with graduation day at hand, do hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I: To Mr. Simpson, our principal, we leave our thanks for his helpfulness and companionship in guiding us through our high school years.

Section II: To the faculty we leave our appreciation for helping us through many new experiences.

Section III: We leave to our parents our wrinkled brow caused from the many hours of plotting new ways to dodge our schoolwork.

Section IV: To the big wheels of next year, the seniors, we leave our high and mighty ways.

Section V: To the rising juniors we leave our ability to survive the last two years of English.

Section VI: Rising sophomores, we leave to you, our never accomplished hours of study.

ARTICLE II

STEVE TILLEY, LEON PHILLIPS, and KENNETH HESTER leave their 600 series in bowling to Jo Cooksey, Nadine Hudson, and Gail Bullins.

JON REYNOLDS leaves his football pants to Tommy Edwards. Keep those legs churning, Tom!

Ski King, TIMMY NORMAN, and Daddy-O, JOE LEGG, leave their skis to Larry Crater and Perry Craft.

ELAINE HAUSER, MARY LOWDER, and GLENDA KIMMER will their quiet ways to Ann Steelman and Judy Teague.

JIMMY COHN wills his ability to cut Miss Farthing's English class five minutes early to Mike Beauchamp and Vicky Conrad.

COLENE BOLES, GLENDA VOGLER, PATT HORTON, and ELIZABETH PETERS leave the "sparklers" on their hands to Reba Flynn, Becky Drane, and Charlotte Charles.

GARY BARNEY and LARRY ETCHISON will their crazy driving habits to Thomas Moody and Wayne Hauser. Listen for those sirens, boys.

JERRY CORNATZER and BOBBY ADAMS leave their calm ways to Jerry Taylor.

CASPER LEE JONES, SHERRIL STEWART, and BOB HIGGINS leave their ability to catch the women's eyes to Butch Hogue, Frank Harrelson, and Woody Cornatzer.

To Harry Gassaway, BOBBY TESH bestows his never dying friendship.

MARY CHARLES CROUCH and SHELIA BOOSE leave their little black address books to Lynn Harper, Linda Henning, and Nancy Phelps.

BRENDA TESH THOMPSON leaves the title to her Ford to Sandra Ayers, Carolyn Tesh, and Pat Lawson—so maybe they, too, can catch a man.

JANICE CONRAD and VIRGINIA BOLEN leave their ways of setting on the good side of teachers to Carol Cumbo and Carol Renegar.

JUDY MOCK leaves her pleasantness in Annual work to Julia Messick and Jackie Casey.

JANE ANDREW and DORIS LAWSON leave their crazy ping-pong shots to Joyce Tesh, Mimi Jones, and Ethel Griffith.

LOUISE STEWART and BRENDA HILL will their position around the juke box to Linda Moore and Carol Jean Hale. Keep those feet shifting, juke box hounds.

BILL SIDES and TOMMY DAVIS bestow their huge frames upon Jum Kendrick and Hal Stultz.

To Billie Jo Jarvis and Dorothy Noel, LINDA LOWDER and MARY ANN SLOAN leave their ability to keep the hallways in a turmoil.

AUSTIN McGUIRE and DONALD HAUSER will to Carey Mock and Jack Todd their efficiency in arriving late every day at school because of flat tires.

BETSY REED leaves her Yankee accent and her New York summers to Barbara Levens, Elizabeth Ann Miller and Zana Mendenhall.

WAYNE HUTCHINS and TOMMY HERMAN leave their cue sticks to Jim Winfrey, Thomas Reavis, and Harold Groce.

GENE GROCE can always "pick the winners" at the Shack. He wills his skill to Larry Childress and Jerry Robertson.

RICHARD VITEK and DAVID SHELTON leave their position in the Honor Society to Melvin Forrest and Cleo Beckner. Keep studying, boys!

RONALD SPAINHOUR and SAM SAPSAY will their physiques to Phillip Crater and Andy Buchanan. Wrestlers, beware!

GENE and JOHNNY SPEAS leave to the Reich twins and the Pratt twins their ability to keep the teachers confused.

PEGGY HARPER and GARY PEACOCK leave all their women to Harry Pink and Tom Binkley.

MIKE KITE wills his "big-legged levies" to Mike Quinn. Don't split 'em, Mike!

All the witty remarks flying around school are willed to Lacy Harris and Marge Wheeling from BILL HUFF and MANCHEL BARNEY.

DAVID SMITH wills his "natural" blond hair to Steve Lewis. Don't "wow the girls" too much, Steve.

KAY VAN DOEREN leaves her spot on the basketball team to Maxine Crim and Linda Nichols.

DON BRENER, HAROLD COX, and WAYNE MOSER will their ability to sleep in class and not get caught to Bill Nifong and Gwyn Riddle. No snoring, boys.

ODELL SHIELDS and VIVIAN SLOAN leave their ability to go steady and not crack up or break up to Byron Seagraves, Darlene Hickman, Tommy Johnson, and Glenda Nifong.

MONTY MATTHEWS wills his all-round ability in sports to Don Bowman, Lindsay Watkins, and Karl Stimpson.

ROGER GOUGH and ROBERT BYERS leave their superior actions while driving their buses to C. W. Cox and James Hutchins.

Those long hours spent working at Woolworth's by ETHEL MILLER and LYDIA BINKLEY are left to Linda Bodsford, Linda Dorsett, and Louise Bolt.

RUTH TAYLOR leaves her job as scorekeeper to Carol Holder and Brenda Bodsford.

MARY LOU PERRYMAN would love to give her good grades in advanced math away. Veola Yates, Linda Brandon, and Betty Rice are the lucky receivers.

MARIE HARPER and JUDY TURNER will their neatness to Vicky Brown, Kathy Essex, and Joyce Spainhour.

WILLIE KIGER and JERRY JONES leave their ability to smoke in the bathrooms and not get caught to Edgar Campbell, Phillip Shelton, and Bill Jarvis.

DAVID LAWSON leaves his shop ability to David Pickett, Larry Crater, and Ralph McKinney.

ROY KEATON and GORDON HUFFMAN leave their sarcastic remarks about teachers to Tony Johnson, Eddie Powell, and Eddie Carter.

ANN ALSOBROOK and JANET MILLER will their assistance to Mrs. Butner in chemistry to Barbara Parker, Kathy Reynolds, and Linda Berrier.

LARRY BOLES and ROY LIVENGOOD leave their hair cuts to James Vickers.

RUTH CHURCH, GUANDELLA ISGETT and WANDA PETTY's one and only ambition is to be through school forever. These "great" ambitions are willed to Patsy Pegram, Joyce McGilliard, Linda Harper, and Sue Elmore.

JOBY POTEAT leaves his co-ordination in sports to Richard McMordie. No broken bones, please.

NANCY KNOTT and EUGENIA HOWARD leave their offices in Y-Teens to Nancy Williams and Judy Hardin.

To Blanche Holder, BECKY JARVIS wills her cheerleading ability. Cheer those teams on, Blanche.

ROY MENDENHALL and BRENDA BEROTH are the two who have such fun bowling in the afternoons. They hope Frank Evans, Marianne Wiggs, Jim Boyd, and Paulette Vestal do the same.

KENNETH FORD and DERRIS FOSTER leave their ping-pong ability to Doug Jones and Benny Sheets. Don't beat everyone, boys.

GREGORY COLBERT and GEORGE FEARRINGTON leave their undivided attention in P. A. D. to Wayne Flynn and Charles Sheek.

ROBERT SLATER and JOE ROTHROCK's toilsome hours of hair grooming are left to Kenneth Tate, Thad Reavis and Tommy Laird.

PAT DANIELS, RUBY YATES, and ANN LADD KING leave their positions at Staley's to Glenda Locklear and Joan Miller.

JERRY TEAGUE and DONALD CRATER will their success in holding a job in Distributive Education to Ralph Johnson, Jackie Boyer, Brenda Poston, and Bonita Conrad.

Frank Transou and Thomas Smith will receive the quality of making the bus drivers angry from ROBY CLEARY and GENE EDWARDS.

CAROLYN WELLMAN and BRENDA SPAUGH leave their giggles to Sandy Smith, Kaye Hawkins, and Jane Foster.

Jim Mechum is the one selected as receiver of the senior class presidency from NORVELL GROSS.

KATIE HICE, MARY KATHERINE McMILLAN, and DOROTHY BOVENDER leave their beloved homeroom teacher, Mrs. Russell, to Edna James, Linda Conrad, Betty Garretson, and June Ball.

BROOK WHITEHEAD and GAIL ROMINGER leave their sophisticated manner to Judy Boles, Margaret Cox, and Myrna Sealy.

JUDY ROOP LEWIS leaves her ability to snag a husband to Bonnie Sink, Sue Beauchamp, and Faye Bodsford.

To Janet Davis, Ann Whitman, Judy Adcock, and Shelia Smith, a vast knowledge of home economics is left from RACHEL MABE, HAZEL DRAUGHN, and RACHEL SPEAS.

Donald Cecil, Wayne Harris, and Bob Brewer receive from ROY DALTON and CURTIS MILLER the skill they have for dashing down the hall after school and only knocking down three people.

GERALD DINKINS and DODD LINKER leave the shoes off their horses to Harry Voss and Jerry Shore, who can sure make ringers out of them.

JANE FRYE, JEAN DAVIS, and LINDA McBRIDE will their desks in bookkeeping to Patsy Shoaf, Joann Hudson and Nancy Davis.

TERRY HELLARD and WAVELL FOGLEMAN leave their "brains" to Glenn Renegar, Billy Harrell, and Billy Sealy.

CHARLES HIGGINS, GAIL MEADOWS, and BOBBIE JEAN LARGEN leave their ability to keep Mrs. McGirt on her toes to Linda Norman, Carol Jones, and Georgia Marshall.

ROBERT TUTTLE leaves his bus driver's position to Roy Foster.

CAROL JAMES, TONA JENNINGS, and ROCHELLE YOUNG leave their pleasant smiles to Wilma Sue Adams, Ernestine Brewer and Darlene Constable.

TOMMY HARRELL and DANNY HAUSER seemed to end up skipping class to work in shop. Clay Furches, Hugh Cheek, and Carl Cook, do you think you'll do this?

Senior Class History

In the autumn of 1956, excited members of the Class of 1960 took a giant step in preparation for future standing among their fellow men.

After slight confusion during the opening days, the class settled down to the newness of the high school routine. Many new friendships developed, and many students participated actively in the organizations and activities of the new Southwest High School. Many boys, boasting of their "fleet-footedness," had opportunity to put their skill to good use as the first annual Sadie Hawkins Day Race appealed to many members of the Freshman Class.

At the beginning of the tenth-grade year, Kay VanDoeren and Monty Matthews took the honors in the first ping-pong tournament, as this new element appeared on the scene. During this year the Junior Varsity basketball team brought home the first basketball championship.

One of the outstanding events in the Sophomore year was the dedication of the athletic field in memory of George T. Moody.

Organization of the Junior Class was accomplished early in the year with the election of the class officers, President, Jon Reynolds; Vice-President, Richard Vitek, Gary Barney, Perry Harper, Nancy Knott, and Mary Lou Perryman; Secretary, Glenda Vogler; and Treasurer, Norvell Gross. Miss Snow, Mr. Robinson, Mr. Russell, Mrs. Butner, and Mrs. Simmons were the loyal and hard-working sponsors. Foremost among the many problems was the acquisition of financial support for the presentation of the Junior-Senior Prom. Due to the total effort of the Junior Class, the formal affair, themed "Sophisticated Swing," was labeled a success.

Helping to alleviate the problems which were encountered at the 1959 commencement exercises were Junior Marshals, Richard Vitek and Kay VanDoeren, Co-Chiefs; Doris Lawson, Gary Barney, Judy Turner, Bill Sides, Glenda Vogler, Jon Reynolds, Jane Frye, and Norvell Gross.

Bringing additional honor to the Junior Class was Mary Lou Perryman, who was presented with the DAR award, which is based on citizenship and character.

The closing chapter of high school life began under the direction of the Senior Class officers, Norvell Gross, President; Steve Tilley, Dodd Linker, Gary Peacock, and David Shelton, Vice-Presidents; Kay VanDoeren, Secretary; and Glenda Vogler, Treasurer. Working with these competent officers were our sponsors, Miss Cook, Miss Adams, Miss Farthing, and Mrs. Russell. Other prominent positions in student leadership were held by Richard Vitek, President of the Student Body; Judy Turner, Secretary of the Student Council; Odell Shields, Editor of the "Odyssey"; and Judy Mock, Editor of THE ILIAD.

One of the highlights of the Senior year was the crowning of Kay VanDoeren as the 1959 Homecoming Queen.

Other important activities were the election of Class Day officers, superlatives, and mascots. Scarlet and ivory were chosen as the class colors, with the red rose as the class flower.

Members of the Senior Class who brought honor to themselves and to the class by being chosen for the National Honor Society were Kay VanDoeren, Jon Reynolds, Ann Alsobrook, Janice Conrad, Ruth Taylor, Richard Vitek, Judy Mock, Norvell Gross, Judy Turner, Glenda Vogler, Vivian Sloan, Mary Katherine McMillan, David Shelton, and Nancy Knott.

The final chapter consisted of pages filled with memories of Class Day, Kids' Day, Senior Class picnic, and the Baccalaureate Sermon.

As these events fade into the past, this chronicle comes to a close with each member of the class, now as an individual, realizing that his future accomplishments are dependent upon his past experiences, opportunities, and the acceptance of guidance from those who led him.

Class Poem

The hour of parting now is here
With high school at our back,
Our thoughts roam o'er the path
Of mem'ries beaten track.

How years have passed on fleeting wings!
The time for parting's near;
But we are richer now
Than when we entered here.

So by unceasing work and play
Through hardships known to few,
We've reached the height of one desire
And gained some wisdom, too.

The days at Southwest draw to an end
With friends and comrades true;
We've sung the songs of dear school days,
And so we say adieu.

Now we shall go our separate ways
With mingled smiles and tears.
The class of '60, its joys and its sorrows,
We'll cherish for many years

MARY LOU PERRYMAN
NORVELL GROSS

Class Song

Now the time has come to say farewell, to all of you.
Memories crowd our minds as we depart,
dear Southwest School.
But each occasion here, we cannot forget,
For being a part of you, we will not regret.

Every year has marked a page in our life's history.
Through events that led to everyone's maturity.
So toward the future years in God we'll stand,
Our deep gratitude to you that lent a helping hand.

Honor Graduates

Honor Graduates are those seniors who completed their high school career with the highest scholastic average. Taking top honors in the Class of '60 are the eleven students pictured here. During the past four years they have accumulated quality points totaling 601. Obtaining and maintaining top rank in a class of 137 students is a noteworthy accomplishment. In recognition of this achievement each of these graduates is presented with a trophy at commencement exercises.

Honor Society

The National Honor Society is an organization that confers on its members the highest honor received by them during their high school years. Membership in this chapter is based upon Scholarship, Character, Service, and Leadership. A scholarship average of at least 2.4 quality points is required for membership in this chapter. The purpose of this chapter is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in students of Southwest High School.

THE PLEDGE

I pledge myself ever to seek the light of truth, to hold before the school scholarly habits, to engage in worthy service, and to lead forward in all things that shall advance the welfare of the school. I pledge myself to uphold the high purposes of this society to which I have been elected, striving in every way by work and deed to make its ideals the ideals of my school.

These are the old members of the Southwest Chapter of the National Honor Society and the newly tapped members during the Fall Induction.

A tea, sponsored by the Society, is given for all the members, their parents, and teachers, after each induction.

F. H. A. CREED

We are the Future Homemakers of America.
We face the future with warm courage, and high hopes,
For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
Old and precious values.

For we are the builders of homes,
Homes for America's future.
Homes where living will be the expression of Everything that is good and fair.
Homes where truth and love and security and faith
Will be realities, not dreams.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders

This is the first year that Southwest has had an active J. V. Cheerleading group. These peppy little freshmen, selected partly from the freshman class and partly by the elementary schools from which they came, have worked hard to create more enthusiasm and school spirit at Junior Varsity games. They have also assisted the Varsity cheerleaders on several occasions by helping to organize cheering sections, and by taking part in the cheering themselves.

Cheerleaders Boost

"Go, Trojans, Go!" This was a familiar cry of the Southwest cheerleaders during the year. Always working to boost team morale and school spirit, our cheerleaders, present at every game, are the personification of Southwest school spirit. Leading the cheering section in yells is not all play. The cheerleaders have had many long practice sessions throughout the summer months and after school.

School Spirit

Clad in new uniforms, armed with enthusiasm, and eager to cheer the team to victory, our cheerleaders began their year. Pep Rallies, dances, and bonfires were sponsored by the cheerleaders. They contribute a great part of their success during this year to the work of their sponsor, Miss Sally Huffman. Through her work and original ideas, many of their pep rallies and projects were made more successful.

Majorettes

These eight highsteppers have provided a colorful half-time show for many of the home games during the football season. They have gained precision and poise on the field through many long hours of practice. Their routines and march steps have been executed with ease and grace.

Scorekeeper

Ruth Taylor, scorekeeper, is a faithful participant in all basketball games. Although her name is hardly ever mentioned, the teams have come to depend on her. Her accuracy and dependability in keeping the record correctly has merited the confidence of the players and coaches alike.
